

Dorroh Named 2009 Mining Association of South Carolina “Miner of the Year”

David M. Dorroh was recently named 2009 Mining Association of South Carolina (MASC) “Miner of the Year”. Dorroh is a Sales Representative for Vulcan Materials Company in Newberry, S.C. He was born in Newberry, SC, and graduated from Newberry High School in 1971. He attended Clemson University where he majored in Parks, Recreation, and Tourism.

Prior to working with Vulcan Materials, Dorroh was the Used Equipment Manager for Blanchard Machinery Company in West Columbia, SC from 2004-2009. From 1974-2003 Dorroh held various positions at Mitchell Distributing Company in West Columbia, SC, ultimately culminating into the position of Southern Regional Manager.

Dorroh resides in Newberry, SC with his wife Annie Laurie. They have two children, Maggie and Marty and a Granddaughter Jenna. Dorroh is Past President of the Newberry High School Booster Club, and serves on the Board of Directors for the Newberry Touchdown Club. He is also a member of Central United Methodist Church. In his spare time, Dorroh enjoys golf, college sports, reading, hunting and fishing.

The Mining Association of South Carolina consists of individuals, firms and corporations whose common interest is the development of mineral resources, in an environmentally sound manner, in the State of South Carolina. They advise and safeguard the business interests of the members through regulatory, legislative, public relations and educational programs. The Association promotes harmony within the industry and with the general public consistent with high standards of responsibility, skill and integrity.