Jolliff Named 2010 President of the Mining Association of South Carolina (MASC)

Matt P. Jolliff was recently named 2010 President of the Mining Association of South Carolina (MASC). He was born in Wilson, NC and spent his childhood in Kenly, NC. Jolliff graduated from North Johnston High School, attended NC State University and Wayne Community College where he earned a degree in Forest Resource Technology. Upon graduation he went to work with the North Carolina Department of Natural Resources as a forest ranger for three years. Jolliff then worked for Georgia Carolina Timber Company as a procurement forester for eight years. In 1988 he started in the aggregate business in green field exploration for Carolina Sunrock Corp. That position quickly worked into a sales position which he held for five years. In June of 1993 he became General Manager of GS Materials. In April of 1995 Jolliff returned to aggregate sales and joined the Hanson Aggregates sales team with responsibilities in the Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill, and Fayetteville North Carolina markets. In March of 1999 he moved to Greer, SC to assume the position of South Carolina Area Sales Manager for Hanson Aggregates with responsibilities for sales and quality control.

Jolliff has served on the board of directors for the Triangle chapter of the Professional Construction Estimators Association where he earned the Order of the Isosceles for service. He is a Past President of the SC Transportation Policy and Research Council and was the first Chairman of the South Carolina Alliance to Fix Our Roads (SCFOR). He is past Chairman of the Aggregate Committee for MASC and serves on the Suppliers Committee representing aggregates for the AGC. He is a member of Taylors First Baptist Church and has been married to Jo Dee for thirty two years. Matt and Jo Dee have two children, Bryan and Jackie and a grandson William. His hobbies include golf, hunting, sporting clays and music.

Other officers elected by the Mining Association of South Carolina were: President-Elect, David Risner, Martin Marietta Aggregates, Columbia, SC; Vice President, Joe McFalls, Holcim, Holly Hill, SC; Secretary, John Bratton, Wake Stone Corp., Knightdale, NC; and Treasurer, Jim Holmes, U.S. Silica Co., W. Columbia, SC; and Immediate Past President, Roy Duckett, Rio Tinto, Ridgeway, SC.

The Mining Association of South Carolina consists of individuals, firms and corporations whose common interest is the development of mineral resources, in an environmentally sound manner, in the State of South Carolina. We advise and safeguard the business interests of our members through regulatory, legislative, public relations and educational programs. We promote harmony within the industry and with the general public consistent with high standards of responsibility, skill and integrity.
